1st, 2nd, and 3rd place medals will be awarded for each division (division consists of all competitors in one category competing in the same kata, although divisions may be combined at the discretion of the Tournament Director).

Grand Champion: As at Sr. Nationals, points will be given for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place results, and Grand Champion trophies will be awarded for the highest points earned by a competing team for Senior Men, Women, and Co-ed, if appropriate. A team must enter at least three katas to qualify for Grand Champion, Itsutsu-no-Kata will not be considered for Grand Champion computations, and any Grand Champion tie will be broken by comparing average scores.

Deadlines and Entry Fees

Early Registration: Entries received up to and including October 1, $45 per kata per person for the first three katas entered (that is, $135 per person for three katas); $15 per kata per person for any additional katas entered.

Example: Jane Smith is competing in seven katas with three different partners. She will pay 3 x $45 ($135) + 4 x $15 ($60) = $195.
